Spooky2 Plasma – The Best Treatment for Pet's Arthritis And Acute Pancreatitis ❤️

I'm finding Plasma to be the best treatment for our dog's arthritis and a recent bout of acute pancreatitis. I like Remote for detoxing presets, CBD, and Endorphins. I also see results with the Delta Waves for Sleep program, it helps the dogs chill out.

I also like doing Scalar Digitizer scans and then running the results on Plasma, we all sleep in a Scalar field as a pack.

the root and runs that. If you can stay connected, I would have the ten pads on each side of the gut area for BFB and run right after. Click here to learn more.

Has anyone had success with the DH Experimental Presets?

DH0062 is one of my favorite presets, but I recommend using Detox Maintenance for a few days beforehand. If that's not possible, try David's Physical Purification first. Drinking warm lemon water and taking magnesium can help, and stay hydrated if headaches arise. Click here to learn more.

Is there a diagnostic program to identify health issues and recommend healing frequencies?

Biofeedback scans give you the frequencies, but not what causes them to be in the results. Just run the frequencies to rid problems and enjoy what symptoms you no longer have. Click here to see more details.

Can anyone recommend a program on nail fungus?

I found my toenail fungus improved dramatically when I ran the terrain program. It nearly disappeared from the affected nail. Typically the nail has to completely grow out to improve in appearance. Click here to see more details.

Spooky2 Forum

Can I use Van Gelder, RUSS, and BIO frequencies like other frequencies with contact/remote mode?

Yes, many of our users have reported positive experiences with the mentioned groups of frequencies. They are legitimate and can be effective for various health concerns. You can certainly use these frequencies in the same way as other frequencies, whether in contact or remote mode. Click here to see more details.

That's all for this week. Take care :)
